

Data Sharing in a Pandemic Citizens' Juries

Agenda for Post-Juries Workshop on Zoom - Mon 5 July 2021

Start Time	Topic	Presenter
13.00	Welcome and introduction to the event	Prof Dame Nicky Cullum, Director, NIHR Applied Research Collaboration Greater Manchester
13.05	Why involving the public in questions of sharing health and social care data matters	Dr Nicola Byrne, National Data Guardian for Health and Social Care
13.15	Why the Applied Research Collaboration Greater Manchester jointly commissioned the juries	Dr Sabine van der Veer, Senior Lecturer in Health Data Science, University of Manchester
13.20	Why NHSX jointly commissioned the juries, and what NHSX can learn from these results	Ruth Keeling, Head of Data Strategy, NHSX
13.25	Three citizens' juries on data sharing in a pandemic – process and findings	Dr Malcolm Oswald, Director, Citizens Juries c.i.c. Kyle Bozentko, Executive Director CNDP, + one juror from each of the three juries
13.55	Q&A with speakers	Nicky Cullum (chair)
14.05	Break
14.15	Group work with mixed groups on action in response to the citizens' juries work	Prof. Niels Peek, Professor of Health Informatics, University of Manchester
14.40	Brief feedback from groups	Niels Peek
14.50	Final comments and next steps	Nicky Cullum
15.00	Close	